In future years, this information will be provided late in Term 3 of the year prior to the conduct of the Externally set task. This will enable teachers to tailor their teaching and learning program to ensure that the content is delivered prior to the students undertaking the task in Term 2 of Year 12.
You are required to annotate the following stimulus images in response to Questions 1 and 2.

1. Annotate the stimulus image on the following page showing how cultural values are depicted through representations within the image. You must include:
   • cultural values represented within the image
   • stereotypes within the image and how they link to cultural values. (10 marks)
For copyright reasons, the image of the promotional poster from the 2012 movie The Campaign cannot be reproduced in the online version of this document, but may be viewed at http://trailers.apple.com/trailers/wb/thecampaign/
2. Annotate the stimulus image on the following page showing how technical, symbolic and/or written codes have been used to position the audience. You must include:
   - the target audience that this image is aimed at
   - how code/s are used to position the audience. (10 marks)
For copyright reasons, the image of the promotional poster from the American Broadcasting Company’s 2010 television series Jamie Oliver’s Food Revolution cannot be reproduced in the online version of this document, but may be viewed at http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/File:Food_revolution_poster.jpg

(Note ABC here refers to American Broadcasting Company. This is an American commercial television broadcast network)
3. Analyse the social influence of a star or celebrity in challenging or promoting cultural values, using at least one example of media work. Justify your answer with evidence from media work you have studied or worked on throughout this unit, referring to specific examples and using media terminology.

You must address:
- the social influence of a celebrity/star’s image on an audience
- how the celebrity/star challenges or promotes cultural values.
